6. University Departments: language requirements, degree courses and International Coordinators

The following pages list detailed information about each Department of the University of Parma: minimum language skills\(^1\) required for exchange students, list of available degree courses\(^2\), list of the Departmental Coordinators/Responsible Persons in charge of approving Learning Agreements. The Sending Institution is responsible for providing support to its nominated candidates so that they can have the recommended language skills at the start of their study period at the University of Parma; the CEFR level of language knowledge must be declared in the Learning Agreement and officially approved by the Sending Institution.

Italian language competence is required in order to attend courses taught in Italian. Foreign students will be offered Italian language courses during their mobility period in order to improve their Italian language skills.

English language may be used for the preparation of the thesis, final exams, attendance of course units available in English language and courses units of degrees fully taught in English language.

For Erasmus+ mobility for traineeship (SMT), where not specified, an Italian B2 or English B2 minimum level is required.

\(^1\) For an easier and consistent understanding of language requirements, see the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) at http://europass.cedefop.europa.eu/en/resources/european-language-levels-cefr

\(^2\) Inter-university degree courses with administrative headquarters in other Universities are excluded from this list, since they are not available for exchange students.
